Subject: April 21, 2019 Public Records Act Request

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter acknowledges your California Public Records Act request dated April 21, 2019. You requested the following records:

1. All CPRA requests (including all follow-ups, and no matter how received) prepared, owned, used or retained by your Agency, received between January 1, 2018 and the date of receipt of this request (inclusive).
2. All CPRA responses (including a copy of all responsive records and all follow-ups, and no matter how they were sent) prepared, owned, used or retained by your Agency, transmitted between January 1, 2018 and the date of receipt of this request.
3. Any logs, tracking spreadsheets, or similar of CPRA requests and responses showing items between January 1, 2018 and the date of receipt of this request[.]
4. Any records showing official email addresses, phone numbers, employee names, job titles, and website URLs or other mechanisms used for receiving CPRA requests[.]

The request as provided is overly broad and burdensome. (See Fredericks v. Superior court (2015) 233 Cal.App.4th 209, 225 ["An agency may legitimately raise an objection that a request is overbroad or unduly burdensome...."].) A Public Records Act request needs to "reasonably describe an identifiable record or records." (Gov. Code, § 6253(b).) Please call me at (916) 845-8971 by April 26, 2019 in order to discuss and narrow the request pursuant to California Public Records Act.

Sincerely,
